

Welcome

Road Transport due diligence event

24 September 2026

AIM-PROGRESS

Catalyzing change,
Championing human rights in supply chains

ROAD TRANSPORT DUE DILIGENCE EVENT
24 SEPTEMBER 2026

Welcome & thank you to our hosts

Anti-trust caution

Please acknowledge...

The Association shall not enter into any discussion, activity or conduct that may infringe, on its part or on the part of its members, any applicable competition law.

By way of example, members shall not discuss, communicate or exchange any commercially sensitive information, including non-public information relating to prices, marketing and advertising strategy, costs and revenues, trading terms and conditions with third parties, including purchasing strategy, terms of supply, trade programmes or distribution strategy.

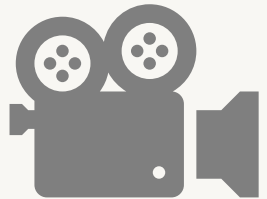

This applies not only to discussions in formal meetings but also to informal discussions before, during and after meetings

Chatham House

Meeting will be conducted under Chatham House rules. For recorded sessions speaker consent has been obtained for publication on the AIM-Progress website.

Housekeeping

Who is in the room today?

Participants list available at welcome desk -please make use of the networking opportunity

Shippers:

Our five co-sponsors;

Other AIM-Progress members and shippers;

Carriers:

Road transport companies & freight forwarders

Other participants:

Organisations working on road transport

Who is AIM-Progress? Our mission and vision

AIM-Progress is a global business initiative by brands and suppliers advancing human rights in supply chains through responsible sourcing.

OUR OBJECTIVES

ADVANCEMENT

supporting members and suppliers to make progress on Human Rights & Environmental Due Diligence (HREDD)

COLLABORATION

working together and converging approaches to achieve better outcomes for members and workers, farmers & communities

IMPACT

amplifying our learning about effectiveness and impact

AIM-PROGRESS MEMBERSHIP

What does AIM-Progress do?

- We develop guidance and tools on Human Rights & Environmental Due Diligence
- We promote convergence of supplier assessment and audit practices and standards
- We build supplier capability on Human Rights & Environmental Due Diligence
- We share best practice to further responsible business conduct in FMCG supply chains

Forced/Child Labour
Responsible Recruitment

Grievance
Mechanisms

Living Wage

Legislation

Impact
Measurement

Human rights
due diligence,
audits,
assessments

Today's Objectives

- Understand challenges of working conditions for drivers in cross-border EU road transport
- Impress need for companies to comply with EU Mobility and Human Rights Due Diligence legislation
- Communicate brands' expectations for responsible business conduct and their requirements of the road transport industry and why
- Discuss challenges & solutions
- Share guidance & tools

Today's Agenda - morning

| Time          | Topic                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Speakers                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10:00 – 10:30 | Welcome and introductionSetting the scene for the day                                                                                                                                            | Louise Herring, Executive Director, AIM-ProgressSylvain Lobry, VP Social Dialogue &amp; Social Fundamentals, DanoneAndrew Davenport, Head of Logistics, Nestlé |
| 10:30 – 11:15 | Overview of the current human rights challenges in the transport industryThe reality of drivers' working conditions                                                                              | Edwin Atema, Director, RTDD Foundation; Jan Hein Mastenbroek, Bout Advocaten                                                                                                                |
| 11:15 – 11:30 | Introducing the EU regulatory framework on human rights affecting road transportationHigh-level overview of how the current human rights EU legislative framework impacts the transport industry | Ann-Katrin Schewe, Global Compact Germany, Senior Manager German Sector Dialogue Automotive Industry                                                                                        |
| 11:30 - 11:45 | BREAK                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 11:45 – 12:30 | Enforcement of the EU Mobility PackageExploring enforcement aspects                                                                                                                              | Stijn Ackaert, SIOD (Belgian Social Information and Investigation Service)                                                                                                                         |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | LUNCH                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Today's Agenda - afternoon

| Time          | Topic                                                                                                                                     | Speakers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13:30 – 14:30 | Implementing Human Rights Due Diligence in Road TransportGuidance and Tools, including supplier guidance & assurance tools | Carolina Singer, Global Head of Social Sustainability &amp; Responsible Business, Unilever;Edwin Atema, Director, RTDD Foundation; Alain Nguyen, Responsible Sourcing Lead, Nestlé;Clare Blythe, Global Technical &amp; Operations Manager, DNV; Frédérique Desroches, Human Rights Director, Danone; Rebecca Nguyen, Global Social Sustainability &amp; Stakeholder Engagement Manager, Mondelez |
| 14:30 - 14:45 | BREAK                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 14:45 – 15:45 | Stakeholder Panel: perspectives on challenges and solutionsViews from shippers and carriers                                | Shippers: Taimoor Hussain, Logistics Transformation Director, Europe, Unilever; Nathalie Thurm, Manager National Risk &amp; Compliance, ALDI Süd;Carriers: Steffen Conradsen, Head of Health, Safety &amp; Security, Head of Haulage Audit Compliance, DFDS; Anton Harslem, Human Rights Officer, Kuehne+Nagel                                                                                                   |
| 15:45 - 16:00 | Way forward – Closing message from shippers regarding road transport due diligence expectations                                    | Louise Herring, Executive Director, AIM-ProgressSylvain Lobry, VP, Social Dialogue &amp; Social Fundamentals, DanoneAndrew Davenport, Head of Logistics, Nestlé                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

Co-hosts' welcome

Sylvain Lobry,
VP Social Dialogue and Social Fundamentals

Andrew Davenport,
Head of Logistics

